The table above is intended as a quick reference for calculating follow-up vaccination dates from the bite or exposure date (Day 0).

When two dates are shown (for example, 1st/2nd), the first date applies to months with 31 days, while the second date applies to months with 30 days. For February and leap years, verify dates using the calculator, which automatically accounts for month length and leap-year adjustments.

Always follow the applicable vaccination protocol and verify all scheduled dates before use.
